I had a very productive meeting with a key capabilities person who is ready. I asked him for another week's time to we don't lose his team. He agreed.

Trump gave an excellent speech today to release his new National Security Strategy. Has a proper view of world politics that allows freedom causes room for maneuver. Take a look: <https://www.whitehouse.gov/wp-content/uploads/2017/12/NSS-Final-12-18-2017-0905.pdf>

when can you meet our friend from Tokyo ?

DEC 21, 2017 7:41 PM

Any time after December 30. I am supposed to be in Mexico until January 4, but will cancel the trip if he wants to come sooner than what you said last night.

Any news?

DEC 23, 2017 4:58 AM

He arrives on the 2nd

DEC 23, 2017 5:43 AM

OK, good. Which day would he like to meet? Does he want to get over jet lag first, or get down to business?

What about the guy we saw last week?

DEC 23, 2017 5:44 AM

I will ask. I think he is eager to meet since he has so many things to do. NY friend wants to do it but asks for more insurance.

DEC 23, 2017 6:19 AM

OK. Thanks. I don't think the NY guy is serious.

DEC 23, 2017 6:20 AM

I have a mixed feeling about it. He wants to do it but wants to do it as cheap as possible.

DEC 23, 2017 6:22 AM

He will fail if he does it on the cheap. This project is not a Chinese sweatshop. Let's focus on the other guy. Please let me know which day because I need to know if I must cancel a trip (which I am pleased to do).

I talked with him and he says he wants to do it but would like to put a clause in the contract which says if you fail to provide the deliverables as defined in the scope, you should return the deposit. What do you think?

As it stands, the written contract gives either party the right to terminate for any reason with 30 days' notice, so if he gives 30 days notice, we would prorate the 30 days from the deposit and return him the balance under any normal circumstance.

Protect you from what? Any attempt to do anything in court will expose everything, and that isn't worth a lousy million dollars for either party.

Do you see a necessity on your part to have someone else as a signer? I don't want to reveal our work to anybody else.

DEC 24, 2017 10:53 PM

I will have to ask him.

DEC 24, 2017 10:54 PM

What is your preference personally?

My comfort level is that I know of you from 30 years ago, and he knows you, too, so you are the ideal intermediary.

DEC 24, 2017 10:56 PM

I don't really care as long as we do it.

DEC 24, 2017 10:59 PM

If it is, my main concern is that you remain as the filter to ensure quality control and to ensure that we can protect our sources and methods, and ensure that NY doesn't release information prematurely and put the entire project - and our people - in danger. If you are not in place to do that, it will risk exposure and could inflict collateral damage on anything else we do. I am partial to working only with the man who is coming to visit us, if NY will risk exposure of the project. It is a deep concern that NY did not want to include her in our discussions yet wants her to be in charge now. It appears that he wants someone under his personal control rather than someone he cannot control. This is understandable, but the ever-changing circumstances make me cautious.

SVUS000072

I appreciate your trust. I think it is important to get him sign the contract. We can work on security later. He wants me to work for him exclusively which I have to think about it.

DEC 28, 2017 10:20 PM

OK. Do you think the contract will be signed today?

She has no idea what she's talking about. We made a compromise for the first month yesterday but today she came back with crazy and unreasonable changes. So nothing was signed. She is on her way back to NY now.

You may want to see Hannity tonight. My Iranian friend Amir Fakhravar will be on. His organization, which I helped him establish 7 years ago, is the one that called for the mass protests across Iran. This will be good for both NY and your present guest to see. It shows in real life what our team can do.
